7. "The absolute last thing we should do ... – at the very moment that Social Security has become the principal lifeline for millions of our seniors – is allow the program to begin to be dismantled inch by inch...We should be talking about expanding Social Security benefits – not cutting them." – Sen. Elizabeth Warren

48%	44%	8%	1%

10. Sen. Warren has raised concerns about the Trans-Pacific Partnership or TPP, a proposed trade deal that she says could weaken financial safeguards designed to "prevent future financial crises" and "let subsidized manufacturers around the globe sell here in America while good American jobs get shipped overseas."

Do you agree or disagree with this statement?

Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree
50%	34%	12%	4%

11. Sen. Warren opposes building the Keystone XL oil pipeline. She says it's about "money and power. The pipeline might not do much for the American people, but it is worth a whole lot to the Canadian oil industry...This pipeline runs terrible environmental risks, and it just won't do much to help the American people."

93%	5%	0%	1%

13. "People feel like the system is rigged against them. And here's the painful part: they're right...Oil companies guzzle down billions in profits. Billionaires pay lower tax rates than their secretaries. And Wall Street CEOs – the same ones who wrecked our economy and destroyed millions of jobs – still strut around Congress, no shame, demanding favors, and acting like we should thank them. Does anyone... have a problem with that? Well I do." —Sen. Elizabeth Warren

Do you agree or disagree with this statement?

16. Elizabeth Warren says she grew up "on the ragged edge of the middle class." After her dad suffered a heart attack and the bills piled up, she started waiting tables at age 13. Her mom got a job at Sears, and Warren says, "That minimum wage job saved our home – and saved our family ... Sure, I worked hard, but I grew up in an America that invested in kids like me, an America that built opportunities for kids to compete in a changing world, an America where a janitor's kid could become a United States Senator. I believe in that America." Is this a convincing reason to support Sen. Warren?
